THERE ARE PLACES
WE REMEMBER...

ALL THESE PLACES HAVE THEIR MOMENTS...

IN OUR LIVES

WE'VE LOVED THEM ALL.

PRINCIPAL MISS F.E. PHILLIPS

"There are places I remember all my life . . ."

from "In My Life"

by Lennon and McCartney

Memories, the theme of this yearbook, are more than the remembrance of places and persons. They become a part of us as many of our decisions are based upon experiences we remember and many of our attitudes are formulated by the influence of people we have met in the past.

Memories are worth cherishing, but I feel there may be a danger if we live too much with our memories. Sometimes it is easier, more comfortable, to dwell on the past in order to avoid facing a future which seems to be uncertain and frightening. If we use only our past experiences and memories to make decisions or to formulate plans we run into the danger of stagnation. In the words of Nietzsche

"Many a man fails to become a THINKER for the sole reason that his memory is too good."

RADIO Q.E.

ETC.

IN MEMORY OF BARRY WALKINSHAW

BARRY

He was young,
Just sixteen years old,
And something special I've often been told.

He was gentle and kind,
Quiet and shy,
He was taken from us
And we'll never know why.

He touched the feelings
Of the people he knew,
And as time went by His popularity grew.

He liked to argue,
He liked to tease,
But he was always there Aiming to please.

He did things for us,
No one else could do,
Things that were special,
To me and to you.

He may not have said it,
But we knew it was true,
He loved us all
And we loved him, too.

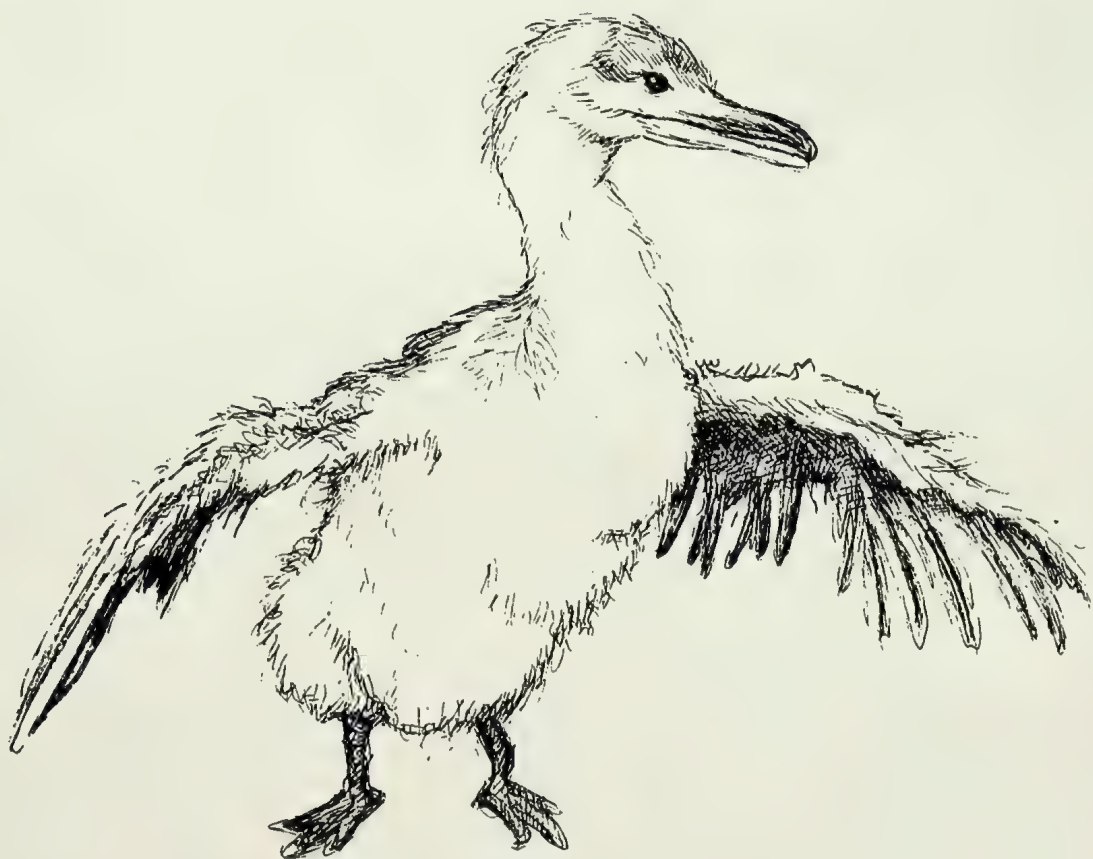

He was taken from us,
On a warm Friday night,
It all happened quickly
And his pain was slight.

He's gone forever,
But the memories are there,
We'll never forget him
Because we really care.

How do I know?
You ask one another,
He was special to me,
He was my only brother.

CLASS ROOM BLUES

Bored, tired sick of sitting and waiting for that day of escape that seems so far away.

Sleepy, head nodding,
mind drifting,
away,
into never, never land.

Dreaming, sweet dreams of baseball games in the warm sunshine, hotdogs piled high with mustard, juicy.

Bells, ringing loud,
voices laughing,
mind boggling screams, coming from the funny looking teacher up front.

I TELL MYSELF

I tell myself to reason.
I hate going away never knowing, what I will find when I return.

Think -
how short the time between us.

Quiet comfort.

Think -
how unsufferable the hours ahead.

300 SECOND DREAM

Wake up! Look at me!
 Did y'think I was dead?
 Wake up! Speak to me
 I'm not sure what it is I said.
 Run, get away, I'm not sure what I'm going to do.
 Get away, I'm ..... mad at you.
 You told me stories and you told me lies
 Now you want me to trust you.
 You act the part that I despise.
 Now, with those pleading eyes you question what I'll do.
 Wake up! Get out of my bed Get out! Get out of my head Shut up! I got lots to be said.

TODAY

The morning dew spreads
 it's silver droplets upon the day.
 I ask you why,
 you will not answer.
 I do not know how you touched my soul but life has sprung and you will come again.
 Reach out your hand;
 I will take it and warmth shall grow to love.
 No promise for the future,
 No sorrow for the past.
 I will love you

TODAY...

IT'S MY SPRING

it's my spring
it's wet and new things bloom for my summer when it will be warm and dry slow, lazy and happy summer's children will grow into my fall and all will change again and the wet will wash my face of summer's residue for winter's clean white cover

i look forward -- all seasons of my life i'll enjoy.

I'M TIRED

I'm tired.

I'm tired of searching for myself,
my friends,
for life.

I'm tired of ripping apart
every word,
every thought,
in search of "why".

I'm tired of exploring the inner depths of my being to reveal how I feel.

I don't care anymore.

If I always ask myself
"why"?
or how I feel,
and try to change that,
I will be more than myself.

I will know no peace
if I am ever questioning.

I must learn to accept things as they are developing their full potential.

It is not important that I know but that I live.

REACH OUT

He had never seen her like that before.
He had never seen
the shadow of sadness covering her face
as it did now.
He had never seen
the untold tears dancing in her eyes
as they did now.

He had wanted to reach out and hold her close to stop her quivering.
He had wanted
to reach out and wipe away the tear staining her cheek.
He had wanted
to reach out and kiss away any fear she may have felt.

He had wanted
to reach out - only sadly he never did...

Who am I?
Who are you?
What are we?
Just two small beings
In a vast, wondrous sea.

You were mine once,
But I let you go.
Now I'll never have you back
And I don't know where to go.
My life is just a turmoil
I'm all confused and drained.
I'll never be the same, you know
Till I have you back again.

THE SKY IS BLUE

"Ma, where are you?" Billy exclaimed as he ran into the kitchen. Going into the front room, Billy flopped on the chair beside his mother and started to talk, "Ya know Ma, I talked to an angel today."

Ma, relieved to see Billy home put her arm around him and asked, "Will you tell me about it, Billy?"

"It was like this, Ma. Rover and I was up on old Man Morgan's hill and we were flying my kite. 'Fore I knew it a big wind blew me with my kite into the sky and away I flew. I didn't know what to do, so I hanged on to the string, an' just kept going up and up into the sky."

"And then what happened, Billy," Mother quietly said, puzzled over where Billy had received such thoughts.

"Well," Billy drawled, almost at a loss of words, "after I got real high in the sky, I saw a bird an a plane an a big balloon-yet I kept going higher. Pretty soon I was so high our house and Morgan's hill was just a dot on a circle."

"Billy, please go on," Mother requested. She had always appreciated listening to and finding time for her only son's thoughts and ideas. She realized child fantasies are one of the most amusing and interesting parts of childhood.

"Anyhow, a space ship went by me and I lost my kite and fell. When I landed, I got up and saw a creature getting ready to pounce on me, you know something like what Rover does to butterflies."

"I was saved, though, by a Martian. He brought me back to home and that's where I met the angel. You know she was nice. She even let me be an honary angel," Billy paused.

"I think the word is honorary angel," Mother corrected, "Tell me, Billy, what did you say to her?"

"Well, I told her I was Billy and then she told me how lonely she got only talking to other angels. So she let me wear her little circle and that's when she told me I could almost be counted as a honary -- I mean honorary angel."

Mother, at a loss for words, could only manage a slight sigh. Billy continued with his adventure.

"I then waved bye to her and I jumped into the Martian ship and we went home. I made sure I had my kite and when we landed I was on a island all by myself. Then a big ship came and rescued me and brought me to the point out there where Dad and I always go fishing. 'Fore I knew it Rover was there and me an' Rover came home. And now I am here just with you," Billy said, leaning over giving Mother a hug. He would have liked to kiss her but he didn't want Mother to think of him as just a little boy. He was a young man carried away by his thoughts in the land where The Sky is Blue.

DISCOVERY

Follow me! Let us go where meadows expand to the sky,
where the wind carries all butterflies.
Let's shower in falls
that flow;
let's discover various flowers that grow;
let's climb a great tree Breathe the smell of the Sea.
Follow me! hand -in- hand to grow together in our glorious land.

ONCE

Once
I believed you loved me and always would.

Once
there wasn't anything I wouldn't do to make your sun shine.

Once
I lived and breathed to lie beneath your touch.

Once
I gave everything I had expecting nothing.

Those were the days when I was easily impressed by smiles.

Once
I believed you loved me...

OLD FRIENDS

Talk to me like you would
Your voice crackling with tears,
Tell me about your life
Your never-ending careers.

Please I promise to listen
My heart won't falter a beat,
As you tell me what you've done
With all the people you meet.

An old friend does you good Or am I a friend of yours?
Lately I can't tell
I can't see behind closed doors.

Maybe I shouldn't know
You conceal it with a lie,
Please don't stop me now
All I want to know is why.

But there is something you should know
Before you send me away,
I love you old friend
In the best possible way.

OUR LAST SONG TOGETHER

Days of devils
Kings and Clowns
Angel songs and birthday tunes
Valentines and wishing wells
Magic stairways
Moons and Junes
Silly rhymes, monkey shines
Pictures on a stage
Round and round the records go
Time to turn the page.

This will be our last song together
Words will only make us cry
This will be our last song together
There's no other way we can say good-bye

Misty faces Far off places
Came and danced across the room
Sha la la's and dooby downs
The sounds that chased away the gloom
Yesterday is yesterday
The past is dead and gone
Nostalgia just gets in the way
Let's stop hangin' on.

This will be our last song together
Words will only make us cry
This will be our last song together
There's no other way we can say good-bye

Now we go our separate ways
And leave the world we used to know
A scratchy worn out 45
And echoes of the radio
The tra la days are over Those days of me and you
Now we know that breakin' up
Is really hard to do

This will be our last song together
Words will only make us cry
This will be our last song together
There's no other way we can say good-bye

This will be our last song together
Words will only make us cry
This will be our last song together
There's no other way we can say good-bye

YEARBOOK EDITORS

I am a yearbook
I make no pretense of great literary worth.
Oftimes I am belittled And I will be the butt of later life jokes Because some things written on my pages
Will seem childish
When read again with wiser older eyes.
But at this moment they are part Of a life we know and love.
The unskilled phrases of youth may marr my pages
But I know my strength
I know my place.
I will be succeeded time and again
But I can never be replaced
Because in my vinyl-clad arms
I hold all the memories of this small time.

My task is to treasure that you will remember Someday . . .
Now and again
I will be taken down from the shelf
The dust will be blown from my covers Eager eyes will scan my yellowed pages for a beloved face.
Nothing ever born of love really dies
And I was created with infinite care
By some Who believe all that happened here is worth remembering is worth recording on the pages of this yearbook.

Lorraine Regehr
Sue Powelson

MEMORIES...

FOR PEOPLE AND THINGS THAT WENT BEFORE...

WE'LL OFTEN STOP AND THINK ABOUT THEM...

WE'LL LOVE THEM MORE.

IN MY LIFE

There are places I remember all my life,
Though some have changed,
Some forever, not for better,
Some have gone and some remain.

All these places have their moments
With lovers and friends I still can recall
Some are dead and some are living,
In my life I've loved them all.

But of all these friends and lovers,
There is none that compares with you,
And these memories lose their meaning
When I think of love as something new.

Though I know I'll never lose affection
For people and things that went before,
I know I'll often stop and think about them,
In my life I'll love you more.

Lennon and McCartney
